APPLE APPOINTS LOCAL COMPANY AS AUTHORISED TRAINING CENTRE

25/1/2006 2:00:55 PM - Press

Apple has appointed Sydney-based Sound Base Pro Audio Training as the first Apple Authorised Training Centre in Australia.

Positioned at the forefront of the audio training field, Sound Base Pro Audio Training will be one of the few organisations in the Asia Pacific region offering accredited courses in Apple Logic Pro.

The company has already created a solid reputation for meeting the training needs of audio professionals in Australia since establishing the UTS Pro School, the only Australian Digidesign Authorized Pro School offering Pro Tools courses, in 2002.

Courses and examinations in Logic Pro will initially be available in Sydney with other major cities in Australia and New Zealand to follow.

Booking and course trainer information can be found at www.proaudiotraininO.com.au
